NEWS > CAST OF EUPHORIA IS TAKING OVER MILAN FASHION WEEK

MILAN FASHION WEEK IS EUPHORIC

1 DAY AGO IN NEWS

WORDS BY CHLOE STRAND

Chloe Cherry for GCDS

Hunter Schafer for Prada

Chloe Cherry for GCDS

The cusp of March signified Milan fashion week and Paris, just following where we could not get enough of the Euphoria cast. Focus splintered and heads were turned as we soaked in every fiber of what the cast was wearing in and to shows- yes they did both.

Just before the release of the much anticipated season two finale of Euphoria, the cast made the journey to Milan fashion week where they were seen sporting trendy basics, elaborate ensembles, and literal show-stopping attire. As if the Euphoria stars Hunter Schafer and Chloe Cherry weren't busy enough, they walked in several shows during Milan fashion week following their appearances at NYFW just a few weeks prior.

Chloe Cherry, who plays Faye in Euphoria, walked for GCDS in an emblematic little black dress, detailed with diamond décolletage no less.

Spreading her support through a cheery yellow jumper, white platform sandals, and an effortless jade clutch, Storm Reid sat front row as co-star Hunter Schafer closed for Prada. Schafer who's known for her harrowing acting as Jules walked in a sleek white tank paired with a multifaceted, three-tiered skirt fixed with silk, tulle, and embroidery.

Flying our attention to Paris, stars Maude Apatow, Jacob Elordi, and Dominic Fike claimed their effortless high fashion looks at Saint Laurent's fall 2022 show. Elordi and Fike opted for the fully black look, very New York meets Paris, both opting for black turtlenecks. Elordi chose a leather vest with Fike in a full vinyl bomber jacket. Apatow lightened the room with her slimming rose detailed jumpsuit and killer neutral pumps.

With a tease of extra eyes on Euphoria cast as they jet-set between fashion weeks it's hard to picture our last Sunday on the couch with them as Euphoria season 2 comes to a close.
